We have ample parking on site and there will be signs directing you to the car park on arrival.

If it rains will it be cancelled?

What's a little rain between friends?! If it rains we just need to call upon the Great British spirit, dress accordingly, and live for the moment.

What if the event is cancelled?

If the weather and ground is not suitable for the event to proceed then we will let you know with as much notice as possible. We would then postpone and rearrange the date for as soon as possible, and you will be given tickets for the new dates, should you not be able to attend, these queries will be dealt with on an individual basis.

Are dogs allowed?

I'm afraid only guide dogs are able to attend this event.
